

Candidate Profile
Local Government Elections
Shire of Ngaanyatjarraku 2021.

My name is Alex Benning.

I live and work in Warburton Community.

I am employed as a supervisor in the Community Development Program.

I am nominating with a particular interest in recreation and youth services. I also strongly support the Shire's push to implement a stable and sustainable waste service across the area of the Shire of Ngaanyatjarraku.

My name is Andrew Jones.

I live in Warburton Community.

I am nominating as a councillor because of my interest in the roads in the Shire of Ngaanyatjarraku.

I am especially glad that the Shire is negotiating to have the Patjarr Community access road to be out back in the Aboriginal Community Access Road Pool.

I also think that tourism in the future will be important to the economy of the Shire.

My name is Preston Thomas.

I live in Kanpa Community near the western boundary of the Shire of Ngaanyatjarraku.

I am nominating as a councillor because the Shire is entering a period of change around waste services, essential infrastructure the emergence of the mining industry.

The increased active engagement with the WA State Government is very welcome and the Ngaanyatjarra Lands Service Review has started a long overdue pathway to improved services and funding.

My name is Debra Frazer.

I live in Warburton Community and I work in the Warburton Campus of the Ngaanyatjarra Lands Remote Community School.

I am nominating for another term as a Shire Councillor because of my interest in services for children, especially recreation services for children and youth.

My name is Julie  Porter

I live in Warburton Community.

I have many children and grandchildren and I think it is important that we all work together to make a safe community for everybody.

I want to continue as a councillor to make sure the waste service problems in the Ngaanyatjarraku Shire Communities are fixed.
